

Ouch!

Today is the day for the Baylys beach six point eight run. My heart was pounding with excitement. My mum had to wake me up at 7:00 to get ready. I had toast, warm milo & to top it all off I had three weetbix. I dressed in the clothes that my mum told me to wear that day.

Then we had to wait for Vanessa & Renee to pick me up. They took quite a long time.

I was quite tired halfway through but I just kept on going. I saw the drinking station. I had a drink it was so so so good!

"I'm nearly there," I said to myself as I crossed the finish line. I grabbed a bottle of water & a sausage sizzle from my mum.

Then I tried to sit down but I couldn't because my legs were aching really badly.

Scott

